JAMES L. DOLAN

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN, THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

James L. Dolan is Executive Chairman of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), a leading sports and entertainment company renowned for its world-famous arena complex, professional sports teams, entertainment properties and historic showplaces. Mr. Dolan also serves as Executive Chairman of MSG Networks Inc., which includes two award-winning regional sports and entertainment networks.

In his role at MSG, Mr. Dolan is responsible for the Company's overall growth strategy and oversight of all of its operations. He also serves as governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

Throughout his tenure, Mr. Dolan has spearheaded a number of restoration projects to ensure the continued prominence of the Company's premier venues. Mr. Dolan was the catalyst for the restoration of the Company's cherished national landmark, Radio City Music Hall, in 1999, as well as the famed Beacon Theatre in early 2009. This was followed by the three-year, top-to-bottom transformation of the Madison Square Garden Arena, which was completed in October 2013. In January 2014, Mr. Dolan introduced a new strategy that centered on creating large-scale venues with a focus on music and entertainment – with the re-opening of the legendary Forum arena in Inglewood, California. In 2016, MSG announced an expansion of this strategy, with its plans for a brand new, state-of-the-art venue in Las Vegas. MSG's venues also include The Chicago Theatre, which was built in 1921 as one of the country's most opulent motion picture houses.

In addition to its portfolio of landmark venues, MSG owns and operates professional sports teams, the New York Knicks, Rangers and Liberty, as well as entertainment properties, including the Christmas Spectacular and New York Spectacular, both starring the Radio City Rockettes. MSG has also expanded its live offerings through investments in Boston Calling Events, which produces outdoor music festivals, and TAO Group, a hospitality group with globally-recognized entertainment dining and nightlife brands, and is part of strategic partnerships, including Azoff MSG Entertainment and Tribeca Enterprises.

Mr. Dolan has led MSG's response to local and national tragedies. He played a principal role in organizing several extraordinary benefit concerts, including "12-12-12," which raised more than $50 million for the victims of Hurricane Sandy; "The Concert For New York City," which generated more than $35 million in aid for 9/11 victims and heroes; and "From The Big Apple to The Big Easy," which raised nearly $9 million for Hurricane Katrina relief. Mr. Dolan also supports both MSG's and MSG Networks Inc.'s ongoing commitment to the community, particularly through the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that works with both companies to help children throughout the New York metropolitan area.

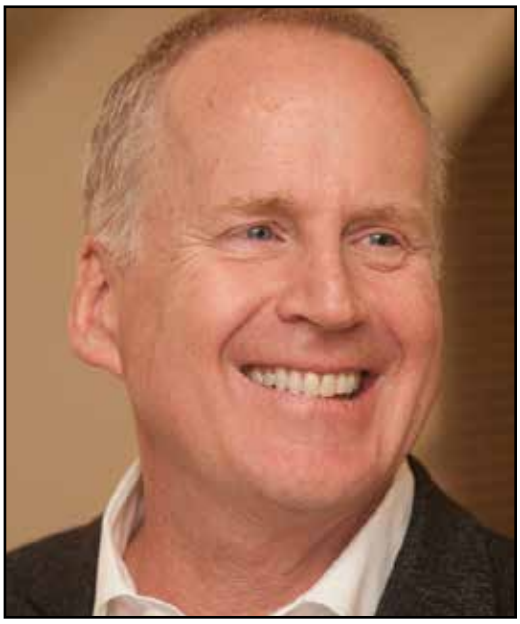
In addition to his oversight of MSG, Mr. Dolan also serves as Executive Chairman of MSG Networks Inc., which became a standalone media company following the 2015 spin-off of The Madison Square Garden Company. MSG Networks Inc. is comprised of MSG Network and MSG+, which together annually telecast approximately 500 live professional games, along with a comprehensive lineup of other sporting events, including college football and basketball, as well as critically-acclaimed original programming.

Mr. Dolan also served as Chief Executive Officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation from 1995 until June 2016, when the leading media and telecommunications company, which served as MSG's parent company until 2010, was sold to Altice. Prior to his role as Cablevision CEO, Mr. Dolan was chief executive officer of Rainbow Media Holdings, the former Cablevision programming subsidiary now known as AMC Networks Inc. Mr. Dolan began his career with Cablevision in the 1970s and held a variety of executive positions before overseeing Rainbow Media.

Mr. Dolan serves on the board of directors for MSG, MSG Networks Inc., and AMC Networks Inc. He is also on the board of The Lustgarten Foundation, an organization he helped found in 1998, which today is the nation's largest private supporter of pancreatic cancer research. Since its inception, the Foundation has directed more than $125 million to research and assembled the best scientific minds with the hope that one day, a cure can be found.

DAVID O'CONNOR

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY



David O'Connor is President and Chief Executive Officer of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), which includes renowned performance venues, entertainment properties, and professional sports teams. Mr. O'Connor is responsible for the Company's overall strategic vision, and for leading the Company's efforts to identify new initiatives that enhance MSG's existing brands and represent new opportunities for growth, including the formation of new strategic alliances and transactions.

The Company's signature assets consist of some of the nation's most dynamic and powerful sports and entertainment brands. This diverse collection of properties includes a portfolio of iconic venues: New York's Madison Square Garden, The Theater at Madison Square Garden, Radio City Music Hall and Beacon Theatre; the Forum in Inglewood, California; The Chicago Theatre; and the Wang Theatre in Boston. In addition, MSG owns and operates professional sports teams, the New York Knicks, Rangers and Liberty; and entertainment properties, including the Christmas Spectacular and New York Spectacular, both starring the Radio City Rockettes; and is part of strategic partnerships, including Azoff MSG Entertainment and Tribeca Enterprises.

Mr. O'Connor joined the Company in June 2015 and, as one of his first tasks, helped drive the successful spin-off of MSG from its predecessor company, now known as MSG Networks Inc. With the completion of this transaction, Mr. O'Connor laid out a plan to grow the new standalone sports and entertainment company. In addition to implementing an organizational structure that has readied the company for future growth, Mr. O'Connor has played a critical role in two new endeavors with a focus on expanding MSG's live experience offerings. These include the Company's plans to build a groundbreaking music and entertainment-focused venue to Las Vegas, and its investment in Boston Calling Events, which produces outdoor festivals, including New England's premier Boston Calling Music Festival.

Prior to joining MSG, Mr. O'Connor spent more than 30 years at CAA, where he served as Managing Partner of the world-wide entertainment and sports agency his last 20 years. He began his career at CAA in 1983 in the mailroom and was soon promoted to agent in the Motion Picture department. In 1995, Mr. O'Connor took over day-to-day management and ownership of the agency along with his partners, helping to expand the agency's operations and services around the globe, while maintaining the company's reputation as a trusted agency. In 1996, Mr. O'Connor and his partners broke new ground in the entertainment industry with the creation of the CAA Foundation, which involves the entertainment community and CAA clients in philanthropy and engages organizations to lend their support to a variety of philanthropic programs. This was followed in 2006 by the launch of CAA Sports, which today represents more than 1,000 of the world's top athletes, coaches and broadcasters, along with many of the biggest brands and properties in sports worldwide, including The Madison Square Garden Company.

In 2008, Mr. O'Connor also co-founded and established Evolution Media Capital (EMC), a CAA affiliate that provides investment banking and advisory, asset management, industry research, and capital-raising services to the media and sports industries, as well as Evolution Media Partners, a $1 billion principal investing fund. And in 2012, Mr. O'Connor was instrumental in the creation of CAA Eleven, a dedicated CAA subsidiary that manages the media, sponsorship, and licensing rights for all National Team Football in Europe governed by UEFA (Union of European Football Associations).

Mr. O'Connor serves on the board of the Garden of Dreams Foundation, a non-profit organization that works closely with all areas of MSG to make dreams come true for children facing obstacles. Since its inception in 2006, the Foundation's relationship with MSG has enabled it to brighten the lives of more than 300,000 children and their families through one-in-a-lifetime experiences, college scholarships and larger community projects that make a real and lasting difference in children's lives. He also co-founded and serves as Chairman of City Lacrosse, an organization that teaches lacrosse and leadership skills to at-risk kids in South L.A.

Mr. O'Connor is married to Lona Williams and has two children, Lucy and Angus.

ISIAH THOMAS

PRESIDENT, NEW YORK LIBERTY

Isiah Thomas' professional career spans more than three decades in business and sports. He has garnered worldwide attention for his contributions on all levels of professional basketball, including induction into the NBA Hall of Fame, and for his successful business initiatives and philanthropic endeavors.

Thomas was named the President & Alternate Governor of the New York Liberty in May 2015, and since that time the Liberty has enjoyed two of the most successful seasons in franchise history.

In 2015, New York posted a franchise-best 23-11 regular season record, finished with the best record in the WNBA for the first time in franchise history, and was the top seed in the Eastern Conference for the first time since 2002. A year later, the Liberty again surpassed 20 wins, going 21-13 to finish 1st in the Eastern Conference and secure a 2nd-straight WNBA Playoff berth.

In 2016, the Liberty vaulted to 2nd amongst WNBA franchises in total attendance, and over the past two seasons, New York has been the league leader in partnership revenue and sponsorship revenue.

Thomas' vision with the Liberty is led by his focus on Community, Chemistry, Defense and Making Memories on and off the court.

"When building this team, there are four specific goals in mind," says Thomas. "We want our team to have great chemistry, identify players that would have a positive impact in the community, to be known for our on court defense first and making memories that will last forever."

The Liberty has bolstered its position as a franchise that fights for social equality, as its players have utilized their platforms to speak out against injustices through support of the Black Live Matter movement, LGBT rights, and gender equity.

Thomas' leadership and sharp business acumen continue to serve him well in his post-playing days. Following his retirement from the NBA, Thomas took a front office position as part owner and Executive Vice President of the Toronto Raptors expansion team. He also served as head coach of the Indiana Pacers; President, General Manager and Coach of the New York Knicks; and was owner of the Continental Basketball Association.

As Chairman and CEO of Isiah International LLC, an investment holdings company, Thomas is also the owner of several companies which include: Isiah Real Estate, a development firm specializing in commercial properties; TAND Properties, a property management firm, private equity and asset management firm; Isiah Marketing, Advertising and Public Relations; Thomas Imports, the exclusive importer of Cheurlin Champagnes and GRE3N Waste Removal. Thomas also co-owns the waste removal's sister company, RE3 Recycling, with his daughter, Lauren.

His other business investments include Popcorn Indiana (Co-Founder), and Sweetgreen.

As a player, Thomas built a reputation as a tireless worker and formidable competitor. The competitor-turned coach and manager was noted for his keen eye for discovering new talent. Thomas' leadership and fighting spirit helped guide the last-place Detroit Pistons to back-to-back championships in 1988 and 1989. While a Detroit Piston, Thomas was a player representative for the National Basketball Players Association and went on to serve as Vice President. In 1988, the NBA players elected Thomas to serve as President of the NBPA, where he served through 1994. During his NBPA tenure from 1983-1994, he helped establish four historic Collective Bargaining Agreements and pushed to raise the average NBA player's salary. He also used his keen knowledge of marketing to help build the expansion of professional basketball into a multi-billion dollar industry.

Thomas combined commitment, intelligence, and his athletic ability fortified him to become an NBA All-Star and Champion. Off the court, he dedicates a large portion of his time to working with youth programs in urban communities, helping to instill confidence, teamwork and leadership skills in young people. Inspired by his mother's work to improve the lives of disadvantaged women and families in Chicago, Thomas founded the Mary's Court Foundation in her honor to support the health, safety, academic and personal achievement of Chicago's youth and youth around the country. Thomas' service to educational, anti-crime and anti-poverty programs began in Detroit when he was in the NBA and continues today in many more cities across the United States.

Thomas gained national recognition for his role in Chicago's Peace Tournaments and his advocacy to prevent youth violence. With Father Michael Pfleger, Thomas launched the Peace Tournaments to reduce gang violence through communication and athletics. In early 2013, Thomas in partnership with Chicago Mayor Rahm Emanuel started a fundraising campaign to launch the Windy City Hoops program in ten park districts, offering a safe haven to kids and families through sports, and now he serves on the Chicago Public Safety Action Committee. He has also awarded more than 100 scholarships to criminal justice students through The Isiah Thomas Scholarship at Indiana University and has recently announced a new annual scholarship at the University of California at Berkley in the African American Studies department.

Thomas credits his mother with instilling in him the importance of education. He finished his college degree at Indiana University during the Pistons' off-seasons and received his Master's in Education from University of California at Berkeley in 2013.

Along with the talented and highly acclaimed actor, Robert Townsend, Isiah worked as the Executive Producer of "Playin' for Love," a romantic comedy film about life on and off of the basketball court starring Salli Richardson-Whitfield, Jenifer Lewis, Lawrence Hilton-Jacobs and Esai Morales and was shot on location in Overtown, one of Miami's roughest neighborhoods. Due to Isiah's continued work in the community, upon connecting with Townsend for this film, they received many corporate and community sponsorships not limited to the Miami Heat, NBA star Dwayne Wade, Jamba Juice, Connor Sports and American Federation of Teachers.

Born and raised on Chicago's West Side, Isiah Thomas is the youngest of nine children raised by his mother, Mary Thomas. His mother's courage and conviction continues to inspire his philanthropic work. Thomas has two adult children, Joshua and Lauren, and he currently lives in New York with his wife of 30 years and college sweetheart, Lynn Kendall Thomas.

Thomas currently serves as an analyst for NBATV and is a regular contributor to NBA.com and Huffington Post.

KEIA CLARKE

VP TEAM BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT, NEW YORK LIBERTY

Keia Clarke is in her first season as the New York Liberty's Vice President for Team Business Development, where she oversees the business and P&L for the team, including strategic planning, budgeting and day-to-day team business operations. Additionally, Clarke works with stakeholders from the Madison Square Garden Centers of Excellence to collaborate on key elements of team business, including growing the fan base, maximizing sales and fan engagement, and improving business performance.

Clarke is currently beginning her 7th season with the Liberty, previously serving as the Liberty's Manager of Marketing for four seasons, prior her promotion to Director in 2015. In that role, she collaborated with Marketing Partnerships, Ticket Sales, Event Presentation, and Community Relations to deliver first class experiences for fans at Madison Square Garden each summer.

Prior to joining the Liberty and Madison Square Garden, Clarke worked on all areas of WNBA business as a member of Team Marketing & Business Operations (TMBO) at the NBA/WNBA league office. She also worked as a Marketing Analyst for Golf Digest Magazine and began her career as an Account Executive for the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Mass.

Clarke attended Canisius College where she was a four-year member of the women's basketball team, graduating in 2003 with a degree in Marketing. She went on to earn a Master's in Sports Business from New York University in 2006.

Clarke resides in Fair Lawn, N.J., with her husband, Brian, and their two children, daughter Avery and son Gavin.

HEAD COACH

BILL LAIMBEER

FIFTH SEASON (13TH OVERALL) | 207-158 (70-66 IN NEW YORK) | NOTRE DAME '79

CAREER COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Started in the WNBA by spending eight seasons as head coach of the Detroit Shock from 2002-09
- Three-time WNBA Champion (2003, 2006 and 2008)
- 2003 WNBA Coach of the Year
- 2015 WNBA Coach of the Year
- Went 137-93 as head coach of Detroit, including six-straight playoff appearances
- Career WNBA coaching record of 207-158 (.567)
- Career WNBA playoff record of 30-20 (.600)

Bill Laimbeer, a two-time WNBA Coach of the Year and three-time WNBA Champion, enters his fifth season as head coach of the New York Liberty.

In 2016, Laimbeer guided the Liberty to a 2nd-straight 20-win season, just the 2nd time in franchise history the Liberty reached the 20-win plateau in consecutive years. Continuing to display the staples of Laimbeer's system, New York posted the best opponent field goal percentage in the WNBA (.413) and led the league in rebounding (38.6). Tina Charles earned 1st Team All-WNBA honors for a 2nd-straight season, and finished runner-up in the MVP balloting after becoming just the 3rd player in league history to win both the scoring and rebounding titles in the same season.

New York posted the best record in the Eastern Conference, but entering a new WNBA Playoff format, secured the No. 3 overall seed, and a bye into the 2nd round of the playoffs. However, the Liberty was eliminated in a winner-take-all game by the Phoenix Mercury, a step away from the league semifinals.

During the 2015 campaign, Laimbeer helped guide the franchise to the best regular season in team history, posting a franchise-record 23 victories while the Liberty was able to grab the top overall seed in the WNBA for the first time ever and the top spot in the Eastern Conference for the first time since 2002. New York advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals for its deepest playoff run since 2010.

Additionally, New York boasted a pair of All-WNBA performers for the first-time in Charles (First Team) and Epiphanny Prince (Second Team) while also seeing a pair of rookies, Kiah Stokes and Brittany Boyd, land on the WNBA All-Rookie Team. The Liberty led the league in points allowed per game (71.1) and defensive field goal percentage (.393).

Laimbeer previously spent eight seasons from 2002-09 as general manager and head coach of the Detroit Shock (now Tulsa Shock), where he earned WNBA Coach of the Year honors in his first full season as head coach (2003). He took over a team that finished 9-23 in the previous year and led them to a league-best 25 wins the following season. The 16-win improvement was the largest in WNBA history. Laimbeer led the Shock to a 137-93 (.596) overall record, including six-straight playoff appearances as the squad won the WNBA Championship in 2003, 2006 and 2008.

As general manager of the Shock, Laimbeer made several key moves during his tenure that were integral in Detroit capturing three WNBA Championships, which still stand as second most in league history. In his first full season, Laimbeer drafted former All-Star and 2003 Rookie of the Year Cheryl Ford. He also acquired the Finals MVP that year Ruth Riley in the WNBA dispersal draft.

Prior to returning to the WNBA, Laimbeer spent two seasons as an assistant in the NBA with the Minnesota Timberwolves (2009-2011).

A 14-year NBA veteran, Laimbeer was a four-time All-Star for the Detroit Pistons. As a member of the famed "Bad Boys," Laimbeer totaled 13,790 points and 10,400 rebounds in his career, becoming just the 19th player in NBA history to eclipse 10,000 in both categories. A key member of back-to-back NBA Championships in 1989 and 1990, he had his jersey No. 40 retired by the franchise in 1995. Laimbeer played college ball at Notre Dame from 1975-79, graduating with a degree in economics in 1979.

Laimbeer and his wife Chris are parents to their son Eric and daughter Keri.

CAREER PLAYING HIGHLIGHTS

- 14-year NBA veteran, playing for the Cleveland Cavaliers (1980-82) and the Detroit Pistons (1982-94)
- Four-time NBA All-Star (1983, 1984, 1985, 1987)
- Won back-to-back NBA Championships in 1989 and 1990 with the Detroit Pistons
- NBA rebounding leader in 1986 (Averaged 13.1 rpg)
- 19th player in NBA history to amass 10,000 career points and rebounds
- Posted a consecutive games played streak of 685, the fifth-longest in NBA history
- Finished his career with 13,790 points, 10,400 rebounds and 965 blocks.
- The Detroit Pistons all-time leader in rebounds.
- Had his #40 retired by the Detroit Pistons in 1995.
- Played collegiately at Notre Dame from 1975-79.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

KATIE SMITH

FOURTH SEASON | OHIO STATE '96

CAREER/COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Played 15 seasons in the WNBA, retiring in 2013 after playing one year with the New York Liberty
- Retired as the all-time scoring leader in women's professional basketball history with 7,885-career points and ranked second in WNBA history with 6,452 points
- Two-time WNBA Champion (2006, 2008) winning twice with the Detroit Shock
- Voted as one of the top-15 players in WNBA history
- Voted as one of the top-20 best and most influential players in WNBA history in 2016
- Seven-time WNBA All-Star
- Three-time Olympic Gold Medalist (2000, 2004, 2008)

Katie Smith enters her fourth season as a member of the New York Liberty coaching staff, having been promoted to associate head coach for the 2016 season, after serving two years as an assistant coach. Since Smith joined the coaching staff, the Liberty has posted an overall record of 59-43 (.578), posting back-to-back 20-win seasons and WNBA Playoffs berths in 2015 and 2016.

Smith spent the 2013 season – her final in the WNBA – with the Liberty, reuniting with Bill Laimbeer who she won two titles with as a member of the Detroit Shock (now Dallas). She retired after the 2013 campaign, finishing her 17-year playing career as the all-time leading scorer in women's professional basketball and second in WNBA history, scoring 7,885-career points as a professional and 6,452 in the WNBA.

A 15-year veteran of the WNBA, Smith was a seven-time All-Star and two-time First Team All-WNBA selection. She won WNBA Championships in 2006 and 2008 with the Shock, and in 2011 was voted one of the Top 15 Players in WNBA history. She ranks first in the WNBA in both three-point field goals made (906) and attempted (2,466), second in career points (6,452), fourth in free throws made (1,440) and 10th in all-time assists (1,258).

Smith is the all-time leading scorer in the history of U.S. women's professional basketball (ABL & WNBA) with 7,885 career points. Smith signed with the WNBA in 1999, joining Minnesota after a two-year stint in the ABL. In 2006, she became the only player to win a championship with both the ABL and WNBA, which was the same year she became the first player to win a WNBA All-Star game as a member of both the Eastern and Western Conference teams. During the WNBA's 20th season in 2016, Smith was voted as one of the top-20 best and most influential players in league history.

Her success also extended to the international level, having won three Olympic Gold Medals in 2000, 2004 and 2008, and the World Championships in 1998 and 2002.

Smith spent several seasons on the women's basketball staff at her alma mater Ohio State University. As a student-athlete for the Buckeyes, Smith helped guide her team to the NCAA championship game as a freshman, and went on to break the Big Ten scoring record for points scored in a career in men's or women's basketball. On Jan. 21, 2001, Ohio State honored her as the first female Buckeye athlete to have her number retired.

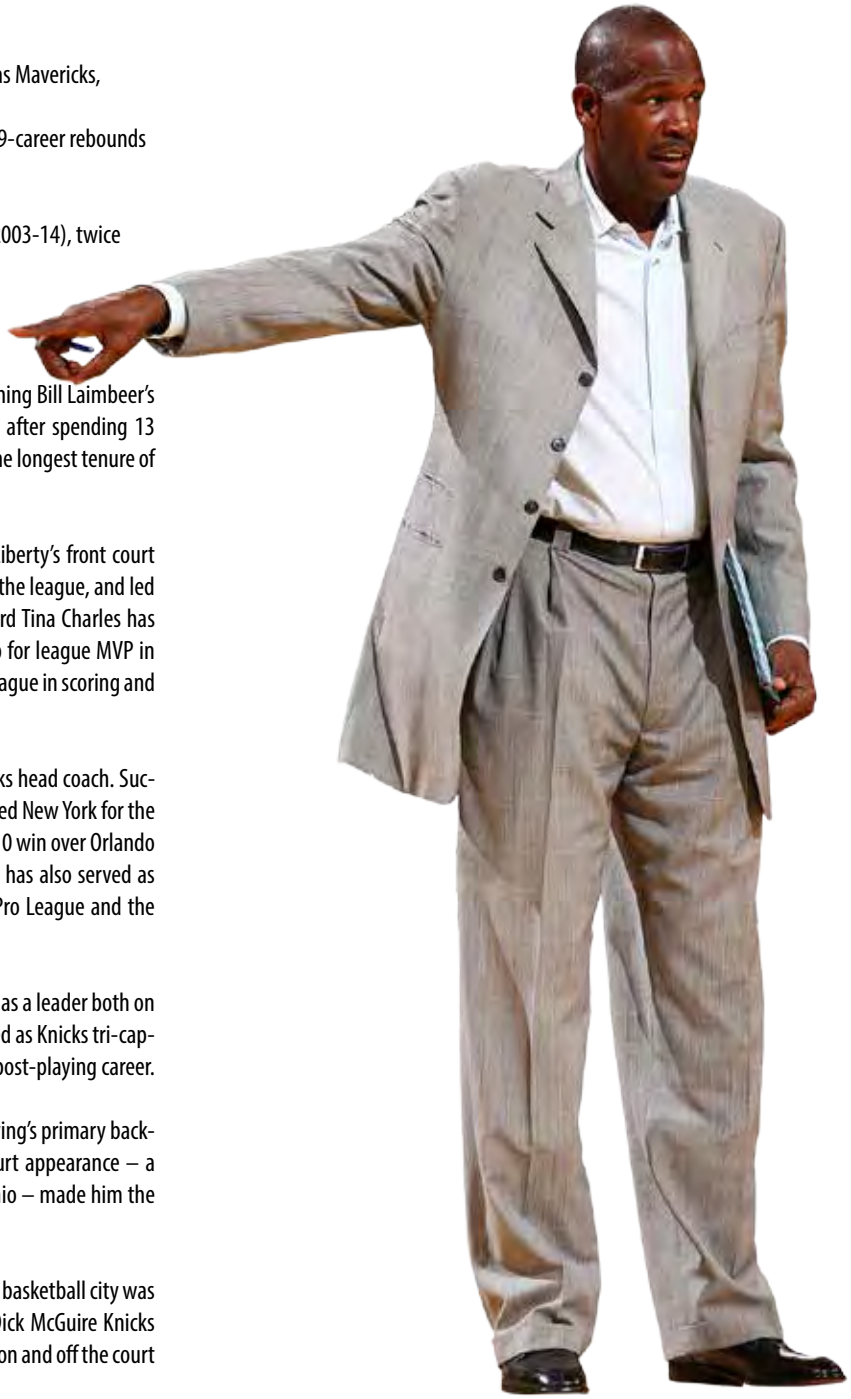
ASSISTANT COACH

HERB WILLIAMS

THIRD SEASON | OHIO STATE '81

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Spent 18 seasons in the NBA, playing with the Indiana Pacers, Dallas Mavericks, Toronto Raptors and New York Knicks.
- Finished his NBA career with 11,944-career points (10.8 ppg), 6,509-career rebounds (5.9 rpg), and 1,605 blocks (1.5 bpg)
- Helped the Knicks reach the NBA Finals in 1994 and 1999
- Spent 11 seasons on the coaching staff with the New York Knicks (2003-14), twice serving as the team's interim head coach (2004, 2005)
- First round pick (14th Overall) by the Indiana Pacers in 1981



Herb Williams begins his third season with the New York Liberty after joining Bill Laimbeer's staff prior to the 2015 season. He returned to Madison Square Garden after spending 13 seasons as a coach for the New York Knicks (2001-2014), which marked the longest tenure of any on-the-bench assistant coach in franchise history.

Over the past two seasons as Williams has worked primarily with the Liberty's front court players, New York has posted the best defensive field goal percentage in the league, and led the WNBA in rebounding (38.6) during the 2016 season. All-Star forward Tina Charles has earned back-to-back All-WNBA First-Team nods, and was the runner-up for league MVP in 2016, when she became just the 3rd player in WNBA history to lead the league in scoring and rebounding in the same season.

Included in Williams' coaching tenure is an overall mark of 17-27 as Knicks head coach. Succeeding Lenny Wilkens as Knicks headmaster on Jan. 22, 2005, Herb piloted New York for the remainder of the 2004-05 season, going 16-27. He also notched a 120-110 win over Orlando as interim coach on Jan. 14, 2004, prior to Wilkens' formal arrival. Herb has also served as head coach of the Knicks' entries in the 2003 Reebok Boston Summer Pro League and the 2004 LA Summer Pro League in Long Beach.

During his playing tenure, Williams was a force in New York's locker room as a leader both on and off the court. For three seasons (1996-97 through 1998-99), he served as Knicks tri-captain. His knowledge and leadership qualities made him a natural for his post-playing career.

As a Knick, Herb became a Garden fan favorite as Hall of Famer Patrick Ewing's primary backup in the pivot as well as a guiding force off the court. His final on-court appearance – a scoreless minute in Game Five of The 1999 NBA Finals against San Antonio – made him the oldest Knick ever to appear in a game (41 years, four months, nine days).

Williams' longtime identification with the Knicks and the world's greatest basketball city was formally cited on Feb. 20, 2012, when he received the fourth annual "Dick McGuire Knicks Legacy Award," given annually to an individual whose contributions both on and off the court mirror those of the late, beloved Hall of Famer.

Williams' coaching tenure follows a distinguished playing career that spanned 18 seasons (1981-82 through 1998-99), just three shy of the all-time NBA record of 21 shared by Robert Parish and Kevin Willis. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, Herb is one of only nine players in NBA history to appear in a game following his 41st birthday, along with Parish, Willis, Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Bob Cousy, Nat Hickey, Charles Jones, John Stockton and Dikembe Mutombo.

Indiana's first-round pick (14th overall) in the 1981 NBA Draft, the 6-foot-11 Williams averaged 10.8 points, 5.9 rebounds and shot .467 from the field for the Pacers, Mavericks, Raptors and Knicks. He scored 11,944 points in 1,102 career games. Herb played the first 7½ seasons of his career with Indiana, and is third in blocked shots (1,094; behind only Jermaine O'Neal and Rik Smits), seventh in games played (577), seventh in total minutes (18,455) and eighth in total rebounds (4,494) on the Pacers' all-time franchise lists. Williams spent virtually all of the final seven years of his playing career as a Knick, and was one of only two players (along with Ewing) to be a member of both of the Knicks' Eastern Conference Championship teams of 1994 and 1999. He originally signed with the Knicks as a free agent on Nov. 15, 1992. Williams was part of two separate trades (to Toronto on Feb. 18, 1996 and to Philadelphia on Feb. 19, 1998), but quickly returned to the Big Apple just days after both.

- Coached the Westchester Phantoms of the ABA in 2007
- In 2011, was voted as one of the Top-15 players in WNBA history

A Liberty legend, Teresa Weatherspoon joined the New York Liberty in the WNBA's inaugural season in 1997 after being selected 10th overall in the inaugural WNBA Elite Draft. A four-time All-Star, she helped guide New York to four WNBA Finals appearances (1997, 1999, 2000, 2002) and was inducted into the Liberty Ring of Honor in 2011.

Weatherspoon was a four-time All-WNBA Second Team selection and two-time Defensive Player of the Year (1997, 1998) during her eight-year career, averaging 5.0 points, 3.1 rebounds and 5.3 assists per game.

She is the Liberty's all-time leader in assists (1,306) and steals (453), and ranks ninth in WNBA history in assists and 19th in steals.

Following seven seasons with the Liberty, Weatherspoon signed with the Los Angeles Sparks in 2004, retiring at the end of the season.

Named one of the Top-20 best and most influential players in WNBA history in 2016, she was also the first player in the league to post 1,000 points and 1,000 assists for her career. Orchestrating what may be the most remarkable play in WNBA history, Weatherspoon hit a shot from midcourt as time expired in game two of the 1999 WNBA Finals against the Houston Comets, staving off elimination for the Liberty and forcing a decisive third game to decide the championship.

A 2010 inductee into the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame, Weatherspoon enjoyed an equally decorated collegiate career, leading the Louisiana Tech Lady Techsters to a National Championship in 1988. A two-time All-American, she won the Wade Trophy (National Player of the Year) and was a Gold medalist at the 1988 Olympics in Seoul, South Korea, and won a Bronze medal at the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona, Spain.

Weatherspoon began her coaching career as the head coach of the Westchester Phantoms of the American Basketball Association in 2007. In 2008, she joined the coaching staff of Louisiana Tech, where she was the head coach from 2008-2014, leading her alma mater to three postseason berths, including back-to-back Western Athletic Conference titles and NCAA Tournament berths in 2010 and 2011.

After serving as a consultant with the New York Liberty during the 2014 WNBA season, she joined the coaching staff as the first Director of Player Development in franchise history for 2015. In 2016, she was named also named the Director of the Liberty Basketball Academy. As the Director of Player Development, Weatherspoon focuses on court instruction, individual workouts with Liberty players, and scouting opponents. Her work with the Liberty Basketball Academy results in the oversight of all youth instructional programs and camps. Prior to the start of the 2017 season, she was named Director of Franchise Development, undertaking a larger role in the Liberty's front office, contributing to off court and team business initiatives.

HISTORIC 20TH WNBA SEASON

- The WNBA is celebrating its historic 20th WNBA season in 2016, a milestone that is of additional significance for the Liberty as a founding member of the league and one of three original franchises (Phoenix, Los Angeles).
- The Liberty played in the in the inaugural WNBA game against the Los Angeles Sparks in the Great Western Forum on June 21, 1997.
- The Liberty is the only WNBA franchise to operate under the same ownership group for all 20 years of the WNBA's existence.
- New York played in the first-ever WNBA Championship game, falling to the Houston Comets, 65-52 on August 30, 1997.
- The Liberty has been to the WNBA Finals three times, last in 2002.
- The Liberty has an all-time record of 349-313 (.527) with 14 playoff berths.

CHARLES IN RAREFIED AIR

- Charles became just the 3rd player in WNBA history to lead the league in scoring and rebounding with 21.5 points and 9.9 rebounds per game.
- Only Chamique Holdsclaw (2002) and Lauren Jackson (2007) have accomplished that feat previously, so Charles is the first to do so in nearly a decade.
- The only NBA players to lead the league in scoring and rebounding were Wilt Chamberlain, Bob Pettit, and Neil Johnston.
- The Liberty has never had a player lead the league in scoring or rebounding; Charles accomplished both in the same year
- Charles' 21.5 ppg average is a new single-season franchise record, eclipsing Cappie Pondexter's 21.4 ppg during the 2010 season
- Charles had never led the league in scoring, but she has previously led the WNBA in rebounding on three occasions, from 2010-12, which includes her Rookie of the Year (2010) and Most Valuable Player (2012) seasons.

DEFENSE STILL REIGNS

The Liberty is known as one of the top defensive teams in the league, and the 2016 season continued that trend as New York once again led the league in defensive field goal percentage (.413) and proved to be the toughest team to score on in the paint in the WNBA. New York saw its opponents shoot just .504 on shots inside of five feet, the next closest team would be Minnesota at .540, and the league average was .571. Controlling the paint proved to be key all season, as the Liberty saw 18 of its 21 wins come when it won points in the paint.

I'LL TAKE THAT

Brittany Boyd became known as an opportunistic defender even as a rookie when she led all first year players in steals, but during her second WNBA season she has reached new heights especially as of late. Coming away with three steals in 4-straight games and 7-of-11 overall, Boyd vaulted all the way up to 4th in the WNBA, averaging 1.6 steals per game. Her 51 steals this season were the most for New York since Leilani Mitchell had 55 in 2010.

CLIMBING THE CAREER CHARTS

Tina Charles eclipsed 4,000-career points this season, becoming the 6th fastest player in WNBA history to do so. She is steadily climbing the all-time charts for points and rebounds, as she is currently ranked 27th all-time in scoring, with 4,101 points, and 12th in rebounding, pulling down 2,335 boards. Her career rebounding average of 10.1 per game is the best per game rate in the history of the league.

THE DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

Forward Tina Charles posted 20 double-doubles this season. With 22 points and 11 rebounds against Washington on Sept. 13, Charles recorded the 129th double-double of her career, second all-time in league history, and she has posted a double-double in 56.1 percent of her games played as a pro. Her career 10.1 rebounds per game are first all time, while her career scoring average of 17.8 ppg is 8th.

SWIN CASH HONORED WITH STAR-STUDDED RETIREMENT CEREMONY AT THE GARDEN

The New York Liberty held a retirement ceremony to honor the incredible career of Swin Cash, immediately following its game against the Seattle Storm on Sept. 7. The impressive event included speeches from WNBA President Lisa Borders, Tina Thompson, Sue Bird, Tina Charles, Tanisha Wright, Bill Laimbeer, and Isiah Thomas.

- Earlier this year, Cash was named one of the WNBA's 20 greatest and most influential players in its history, having won three WNBA Championships (2003, 2006, 2010), two Olympic gold medals (2004, 2012) and two NCAA Championships (2000, 2002).
- At the conclusion of the season, she will end her career ranked in the top-15 in WNBA history in scoring, rebounding, assists, and games played.
- She is one of two players in league history to amass more than 5,000 points, 2,000 rebounds, and 1,000 assists, the other being Tamika Catchings, who also retired at the end of the 2016 WNBA season.

TINA CHARLES MAKES HISTORY WITH 4,000TH-CAREER POINT

Tina Charles finished with 23 points in the Liberty's win over Phoenix on Sept. 3, and in doing so became the 29th player in WNBA history to surpass 4,000-career points. Charles is the 6th-fastest in the history of the WNBA to reach the 4K threshold, doing so in just 226-career games, and she became the 3rd youngest, at 27 years old and 273 days. Only Lauren Jackson and Diana Taurasi were younger when they passed 4,000 points.

20-20 VISION

With its 92-70 win over the Phoenix Mercury on Sept. 3, the Liberty reached 20 victories for the second-straight season. It is just the second time in franchise history that New York has won 20 games in back-to-back seasons, as the Liberty is coming off a franchise record 23 wins in 2015. The last time New York reached that threshold in consecutive years was back in 2000-01.

DROPPING DIMES, DROPPING DIMES

Tina Charles is known as a great scorer and rebounder, but so far in 2016 she has also been one of New York's best distributors of the basketball. Charles has recorded at least three assists in 25-of-32 games, and posted four games with at least six dimes, most recently against Seattle on Sept. 7 when she led the Liberty with seven assists. Charles led New York this season, averaging 3.8 assists per game, which ranked 13th in the league.

GOLD STANDARD X2

Tina Charles helped lead the U.S. Women's Basketball National Team to its 6th-consecutive gold medal victory at the 2016 Summer Games in Rio. Charles, who started all 8 games at forward for the United States during the Olympic Tournament, is a gold medal winner for the 2nd time in her career; she was a member of the USAB Women's National Team for its gold medal win in London in 2012. While the Liberty has had U.S. gold medal winners on its roster in the past, Charles became the franchise's first active member to represent the United States in the Olympics.

1879-1889: 26th Street and Madison Avenue

BEGINNINGS

The current Garden - located between 31st and 33rd Streets and Seventh and Eighth Avenues on Manhattan's West Side - is the fourth building (third site) to be named Madison Square Garden.

Garden I was located at Madison Square: 26th Street and Madison Avenue. It was originally opened in 1874 (at a cost of $35,000) by the legendary P.T. Barnum as "Barnum's Monster Classical and Geological Hippodrome." However, it was soon renamed "Gilmore's Garden" when the lease was auctioned off to bandmaster Patrick S. Gilmore (the term "Garden" was used often during this period to denote a place of public gathering and entertainment).

The building, which had 28-foot walls without a roof, hosted a varied schedule of social and fraternal meetings, flower shows and commercial exhibitions. When Gilmore's lease expired in 1878, it was picked up briefly by W. M. Tileson. The following year, William Vanderbilt of the New York Central Railroad assumed control of the facility and officially renamed it "Madison Square Garden" on May 31, 1879. Featuring a sports and entertainment program that stressed such events as boxing and the National Horse Show, Garden I stood until its demolition in 1889.

Garden II was constructed on the site of Garden I, opening on Jun. 16, 1890 at a cost of $1.5 million. It contained an 8,000-seat main arena, 1,500-seat concert hall, 1,200-seat theatre and the world's largest indoor swimming pool. The Spanish Renaissance-style structure was topped by its most famous feature: a 32-story tower and roof garden atop which stood Augustus Saint-Gauden's gold statue of Diana, Goddess of the Hunt.

Stanford White, the renowned architect who designed Garden II, also figured in its most famous - and infamous - event. On the night of Jun. 25, 1906, White was gunned down in the Garden's rooftop garden by Pittsburgh millionaire Harry Thaw, allegedly in revenge for White's long-standing affair with Thaw's wife, showgirl Evelyn Nesbit. The White-Thaw-Nesbit love triangle was ultimately immortalized in the 1955 film The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing - starring Ray Milland as White and Joan Collins as Nesbit - and in the recent best-seller American Eve by Paula Uruburu (Riverhead Books, 2008). Nesbit died in obscurity in California at age 81 in 1967.

Garden II hosted a sporting card heavy with boxing, wrestling, six-day bicycle races and horse shows, along with national events such as the 1924 Democratic National Convention, a marathon that lasted through 16 days and 103 ballots. Movie buffs will recall that in Orson Welles' 1941 classic Citizen Kane, Charles Foster Kane's acceptance of the 1916 New York gubernatorial nomination takes place at Garden II (although, obviously, it wasn't actually filmed there).

Garden II closed with a boxing card on May 5, 1925, followed by a mournful eulogy by ring announcer Joe Humphreys: "Farewell to thee, o temple of fistiana. Farewell to thee, o sweet Miss Diana...". The New York Life Insurance Building (51 Madison Avenue) occupies the former site of Gardens I and II, while Diana found a new home at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Garden III - the "Old Garden" was built in just 249 days at 49th Street and Eighth Avenue under the watchful eyes of promoter Tex Rickard and architect Thomas Lamb. The fabled 18,000-seat arena, built at a cost of $5.6 million, opened with a six-day bicycle race on Nov. 24, 1925, and for 43 years was America's premier sports and entertainment showplace. Ironically, Rickard did not live to see the blossoming of Garden III, suffering a fatal appendicitis attack on Jan. 6, 1929.

1890-1925: 26th St. and Madison Avenue.

Anyone who ever set foot in the Old Garden remembers its unforgettable atmosphere...the sky-high balcony...the haze from decades of cigarette smoke...the main lobby, a schmoozer's paradise...the marquee...G.O. Cards...the organ (played first by Gladys Goodding, later by Virginia Thomas)...the unmistakable voice of John Condon...the Nedick's and Adam Hats stores that flanked the main entrance...

Sports - especially hockey, basketball, boxing and track - would be the lifeblood of the Old Garden. But it also hosted entertainment extravaganzas ranging from the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus and the Gene Autry Rodeo to star-studded spectacles like Mike Todd's 1957 anniversary party for his film Around the World in 80 Days and President John F. Kennedy's May 19, 1962 birthday party which featured Marilyn Monroe's breathless version of "Happy Birthday." On the screen, the Garden provided the inspiration, and title, for the 1932 Paramount epic Madison Square Garden, starring Jack Oakie and ZaSu Pitts, as well as the on-location backdrop for the harrowing final reel of John Frankenheimer's 1962 classic The Manchurian Candidate.

The first NHL team to play at Garden III was the New York Americans, who rented the building for the 1925-26 season. The Rangers played their first regular-season NHL game there on Nov. 16, 1926, beating the Montreal Maroons 1-0. In the 42 years the Rangers played on 49th Street, they would win three Stanley Cup championships (1928, 1933 and 1940) and develop a host of Hall of Famers, including Bill Cook, Frank Boucher, Ching Johnson, Babe Pratt, Neil Colville, Chuck Rayner, Andy Bathgate, Harry Howell, Gump Worsley, Rod Gilbert, Jean Ratelle and Eddie Giacomin.

The Rangers played their final game at the Old Garden on the afternoon of Feb. 11, 1968;a 3-3 tie with Detroit. The last event ever was the Westminster Dog Show, over Feb. 12-13, 1968. After the Old Garden was demolished, the site was used for years as a Kinney parking lot. The Worldwide Plaza office/apartment complex, which opened in 1989, now occupies the site.

1925-1968: 49th Street and Eighth Avenue

GARDEN IV

On Nov. 3, 1960, Garden president Irving Mitchell Felt announced plans for a new Madison Square Garden - Garden IV - to eventually be built at 33rd Street between Seventh and Eighth Avenues, atop Pennsylvania Station.

Prospective sites for a New Garden had been discussed throughout the mid- and late-'50s, especially the area at Columbus Circle which would eventually house the New York Coliseum and, ultimately, the Time Warner Center.

Then the Garden Corporation obtained the coveted "air rights" above Penn Station from the Pennsylvania Railroad in 1961. The Railroad had entertained the idea of selling Penn Station's air rights as far back as 1951, when faced with a $72 million deficit. In 1955, Railroad president James Symes and famed real estate developer William Zeckendorf signed an agreement to option the Station's air rights for an industrial-commercial "Palace of Progress", with a new, renovated Penn Station below street level. When the project fell through, the Railroad sold the air rights to the Garden Corporation. Above-ground demolition of Penn Station began on Oct. 28, 1963, with new concrete poured starting on May 1, 1964.

Garden IV opened as a glittering sports and entertainment showplace, with its distinctive circular, cable-suspended roof above the 19,000-seat arena, its 5,000-seat Felt Forum, 48-lane Bowling Center, 500-seat cinema, Hall of Fame Club, National Art Museum of Sport, 50,000-square foot Exposition Rotunda and 29-story office building (Two Penn Plaza) attached by a pedestrian mall.

The first element of the New Garden complex to open its doors was the Bowling Center, on Oct. 30, 1967. On Nov. 26, 1967, the Felt Forum opened with a performance of the Welsh and Scots Guards.

The "New Garden" itself officially opened on Feb. 11, 1968, when Bob Hope and Bing Crosby hosted "The Night of the Century," a star-studded salute to the USO. One week later – Feb. 18, 1968 – the Rangers played their first game in their new home, a 3-1 victory over a Philadelphia Flyers team that had entered the NHL that season in what signaled the end of the NHL's Original Six era.

ODDS 'N ENDS

- Cost for design and construction of the present Garden was $43 million.
- Garden IV was built by Turner Construction and the Del E. Webb Corporation. The building was designed by Charles Luckman, the fabled entrepreneur and architect who died in 1999. Luckman also designed the Great Western Forum, the Los Angeles Convention Center, CBS Television City, the Prudential Center in Boston and the Johnson Space Center in Houston.
- The Garden arena is 425 feet in diameter, 13 stories high, and occupies 820,000-square feet of real estate.
- Each of the four entrance/exit towers is over 100 feet high and contains at least 10 escalators.
- Seating capacity for Rangers hockey is 18,200.

THROUGH THE YEARS

A look at the improvements/enhancements at Garden IV over the years:

1972: Garden IV becomes the first New York sports venue to install luxury boxes, formally named "Hall of Fame Lounges." The original deck of 11 luxury suites - each measuring 23x15 feet and accommodating 10 people - is installed above the mezzanine level on the 33rd Street side.Due to the ongoing luxury suite construction, basketball broadcast locations are moved to courtside and directly above center-court exit tunnels. Previously, they had been located in a two-level booth suspended from the roof.

1977: Original end zone scoreboards replaced by new 36-foot long scoreboards in each end zone, and smaller auxiliary boards on the facing of the mezzanine at center court. New boards feature tenth-of-a-second timing capabilities and black-and-white animated matrix boards.

1989-91: Over a three-year span, the Garden complex undergoes its most extensive renovation to date, a multi-million dollar effort in which:

- Each of the original red, orange, yellow, green and blue seats is removed and replaced. Primary color scheme is now purple and teal.
- Existing scoreboards are replaced by a computerized, state-of-the-art system that features the eight-sided Center Display Board (37 feet wide at the top, 34 feet wide at the bottom), complete with "GardenVision" color replay screens and multi-colored end zone boards, by White Way Company of Chicago. It is the first eight-sided scoreboard in a major U.S. arena. Original Garden sound system is also completely overhauled, including the replacement of the original center-hung "sound cluster" with four separate speaker clusters affixed to the arena ceiling.

- Original Hall of Fame Lounges (luxury boxes) are removed and replaced by a completely new deck of 89 Club Suites that encircles the entire arena, including a double-deck of suites on the 7th Avenue end.
- The Paramount, a state-of-the-art, 5,600-seat theatre, is constructed on the former site of the Felt Forum, now named the Theater at Madison Square Garden. Fronting the main entrance is the Garden Walk of Fame, which opens in 1992.
- Two dining facilities - The Club Restaurant and the Play-By-Play sports bar and restaurant - are constructed on the former site of the Bowling Center and the Hall of Fame Club.
- Garden exterior renovated, including the installations of animated color matrix boards above the Seventh Avenue entrance to Penn Station and the Eighth Avenue facade.
- Upgrades and improvements in other areas of the Garden, including concession stands (and all-new Food Courts), locker rooms, press room, box office, Garden Team Store and broadcast facilities.

1995: Knicks and Rangers locker room areas are further renovated and expanded, including increased player/locker space, expanded training and X-ray facilities and individual offices for all coaches.

2000: Ongoing improvement program in the new century features "GardenVision" upgraded to HD format, making it the first indoor arena to feature HD playback.

2007: LED and Matrix center scoreboard and side out-of-town boards installed.

AND A NEW ERA DAWNS...

In fall 2013 the three-year, historic Transformation of Madison Square Garden will be completed, providing a significantly enhanced experience for customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and marketing partners, from the first row to the last. The project involves over 2.6 million man hours of union labor, the equivalent of at least 1,300 full-time jobs, creating as many as 3,700 union construction jobs. It will also restore The Garden's iconic ceiling and pay homage to the building's storied history. The project's architect is Brisbin Brook Beynon, Construction Manager is Turner and Project Manager is JLL.

Extensive research and focus groups were conducted and the feedback was used to develop the plans for the Transformation. The transformed Garden is expected to attract even more high profile sports and entertainment events, major concerts and awards shows, as well as provide new and unique opportunities for marketing partners to drive their business objectives – JPMorgan Chase has become The Madison Square Garden Company's first ever Marquee Partner and Anheuser-Busch, Coca-Cola, Delta Air Lines, Kia Motors and Lexis have signed on as Signature Partners. Some of the many major upgrades that fans will experience, include:

- Beautiful new Chase Square 7th Avenue entrance, which will be nearly double the previous size and feature interactive kiosks, retail, climate controlled space, and broadcast studio
- Public concourses doubling and tripling in size, some with spectacular city views
- New first-class food and beverage options available throughout the building featuring some of the best chefs and restaurants of New York
- Larger, more comfortable seats
- Improved upper bowl sightlines that puts patrons seven to 10 feet, or three rows, closer to the action
- Two new Chase Bridges that will provide one-of-a-kind views of the arena floor and offer a unique perspective for fans
- State-of-the-art lighting, sound and LED video systems in HD, and new fiber-optic cabling throughout the building
- New dressing rooms, locker rooms, green rooms, and production offices
- 50% more restroom facilities and 60% more food and beverage points of sale
- Corporate offerings: 58 Madison Level Suites that will be 40% larger and half the distance to the events and includes seats in the arena bowl, 20 Event Level Suites that offer a lounge/entertaining atmosphere and the best seats in the house, and 18 remodeled 9th level Signature Suites. There will also be several new all-inclusive club spaces, the 1879 Club presented by J.P. Morgan, the Delta Sky360 Club on the event level, and the Madison Club presented by Foxwoodson the 7th floor of the Arena.

> "New York is not a city. It is a set of cities, dozens of them, divided by caste, class, taste and blood. Most of us are welcome in a few of these cities, barred from others by tradition, or fear, or indifference, or income. But all of us hold safe conduct passes to The Garden. It is a center of experience for the same reason New York is: nothing is out of place there. Walk through a neighborhood of New York and you will find people who would never dream of setting foot in Carnegie Hall, the Empire State Building, the Fillmore East, Sunnyside Gardens, The Four Seasons, or the Bronx Zoo. Madison Square Garden is alien to none of us."

The Garden of Dreams Foundation is a non-profit organization that works with The Madison Square Garden Company and MSG Networks, Inc. to positively impact the lives of children facing obstacles. The Foundation works with 28 partner organizations throughout the tri-state area, including hospitals, wish organizations and community-based organizations, to reach children who are facing challenges such as homelessness, extreme poverty, illness and foster care.

Since it began in 2006, Garden of Dreams has used the magic of MSG and MSG Networks – including the Knicks, Rangers, Liberty, Rockettes, famed showplaces and two sports and entertainment networks – to brighten the lives of more than 325,000 children and their families. The Foundation takes pride in its commitment to truly change lives, hosting more than 500 events and programs each year.

In addition, through its Garden of Dreams Giving program, the Foundation helps its partner organizations through the direct support of scholarships and long-lasting community projects such as the refurbishment of pediatric areas at local hospitals, basketball courts and community centers – with plans for many more vital civic enhancements in the years to come.

MSG has been providing thrills for New York-area sports fans for over four decades. MSG's historic first telecast was on October 15, 1969 with the New York Rangers' home opener against the Minnesota North Stars to 18,000 cable television subscribers in lower Manhattan. Today, the network is available in over 11 million homes in the broader New York region and across the nation.

Since its inception, MSG has prided itself on being a leader in the sports television industry by staying on the cutting edge of sports technology. In 1998, MSG became the first regular provider of sporting events in high definition (HD) and in 2010 MSG delivered the world's first hockey game in 3D. As the exclusive local television home of the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New Jersey Devils, New York Islanders, Buffalo Sabres, New York Liberty and New York Red Bulls, MSG Networks, which includes MSG and MSG+, telecasts nearly 700 live professional games per year. MSG Networks also telecasts 150 live college basketball games and 50 live college football games from top national conferences (SEC, Pac 12, Big 12), as well as other award-winning original programming. MSG Networks recently earned 16 New York Emmy Awards, including 14 for MSG – tops in the New York region for the third year in a row – and two for MSG+. Over the past five years, MSG Networks has totaled 77 New York Emmy Awards, including 69 for MSG – also the most of any New York station or network in that time – and eight for MSG+.
